

Island Park Village Association

Board meeting Minutes

Architectural Review

November 3, 2022

I saw a shed being built within the subdivision on lot 75. I contacted the owner who was surprised that we require architectural review before construction, however he is will to submit after the fact so to speak. Had this review come in before construction I would have recommended approval. I still recommend approval. Gary

All members approved Construction